

The African Atlantic Research Team of Michigan State University

presents

SIGNIFICATIONS FORWARD

DR. CHARLES H. LONG AND HIS WORKS

Monday, September 30th, 2013, 10am - 5pm
Tuesday, October 1st, 2013; 10am - 5pm
Kellogg Center, Michigan State University

Historian of Religion, Charles H. Long, received his B.D. and Ph.D. at University of Chicago, studied with Professor Joachim Wach - pioneer of the History of Religions field; co-founded the international journal, History of Religions; founding Editor, Studies in Religion Series Univ. North Carolina Press; co-Editor in Chief of Religions of the Americas Series, University of New Mexico Press; co-founder, Society for the Study of Black Religion; past President of the American Academy of Religion, Professor Emeritus from University California, Santa Barbara, and Syracuse University. His volume Significations: Signs, Symbols and Images in the Interpretation of Religion continues to inspire new research.

SPONSOR

University of Michigan

SUPPORTER

For More Info Contact :

AART Office, 300 Berkey Hall, MSU, 517-432-8668

john1956@msu.com

Reflections
by the Pre-eminent
African-American Historian of Religion.